Marvin Wickware Jr., assistant professor of church and society and ethics at LSTC, and a student of James Cone, remembers this beloved ancestor and what he taught us about Black Joy. This presentation completes week two of 2021 Black History Month events around the theme “Celebrating Black Joy.”

Learn more about LSTC’s 2021 Black History Month Events at https://www.lstc.edu/news-events/bhm