

Feb 1-2, 2019

MECCA Center (Chicago) 6W560 91st St, Willowbrook, IL 60527

- ◆ Does your congregation ask questions that you struggle to answer about Islam and Muslims?
- ◆ Do you want to be an effective ally for your Muslim neighbors?
- ◆ Do you want to have the right tools and training to challenge anti-Muslim bias?

If so, then this is the conference for you!

Through this training, participants will learn effective strategies to better advocate against Islamophobia – a narrative of fear and divisiveness in our country.

National and local experts and practitioners facilitate this training to educate, network, and equip faith leaders.

Friday, Feb 1

9:00 am – 7:00 pm:

Learning the basics of Islam and understanding Islamophobia facilitated by Muslim leaders

6:00-7:00 pm
Unveiled play by Rohina Malik

Saturday, Feb 2

9:00 am - 5:00 pm:

Equipping leaders and communities to respond to common misconceptions about Islam and Muslims in order to be agents of change in their communities

Register by Jan 28th at
WWW.EVENTBRITE.COM/E/FAITH-OVER-FEAR-CHICAGO-TICKETS-53357408445

- Full conference rate:
$125 general
$30 students
- One day rate:
$75 general
$20 students

For more information, contact Sara Trumm at strumm@lstc.edu or 773-256-0708.

Sponsored by:

Presenters from: American Islamic College; Chicago Theological Seminary's Inter-Religious Institute; Inner-city Muslim Action Network; InterFaith Youth Core; Neighbors in Faith; ReThink Media; Muslim Advocates; Bridge Initiative at Georgetown University; Sojourners; America Indivisible; Project OverZero; and more!